

Business Plan Rubric

Score each criterion 1 (absent or wrong) to 5 (strong, evidenced). Every score must cite the sentence or figure in the plan that justifies it.

Criterion	What a 5 looks like
Market evidence	Claims traced to verifiable sources; demand quantified honestly
Financial realism	Revenue, costs and profit distinguished; prices consistent throughout
Operations and compliance	Capacity arithmetic holds; food registration, hygiene and allergen duties (incl. Natasha's Law) addressed
Competition and differentiation	Competitors and substitutes named with a credible answer to each
Risk and contingency	Single points of failure identified with mitigation; seasonality planned for
